In case of a Disaster During the Festival

Even while enjoying your time, disasters such as earthquakes can occur.
If a disaster happens, please remain calm and keep the following actions in mind:

- Decide on a communication method and meeting place in case of an emergency.
- Be aware of the movement of emergency vehicles and cooperate to allow them passage.
- Help those who may have difficulty evacuating, such as injured individuals, small children, the elderly, and people with disabilities, and evacuate together.

If an Earthquake Occurs

If a major earthquake happens, this festival will be canceled immediately.
Ensure your safety and act calmly.

- If you are seated in the Shizuoka City Cultural Hall, do not rush to leave your seat; follow the guidance of the staff.
- Avoid moving in haste, and protect your head with your belongings or a guidebook.

Please utilize the Disaster Emergency Message Dial and Disaster Emergency Broadband Message Board.

During a disaster, phone calls for safety confirmation can flood in, making it difficult to get through. It is helpful to use NTT's Disaster Emergency Message Dial (171), "web171," and Disaster Emergency Broadband Message Board provided by various mobile carriers.

Symbol Mark

Evacuation locations are indicated on the map in the guidebook.

In Case of Sudden Strong Winds or Thunder

- Seek shelter in sturdy buildings or underground shopping areas. To prevent accidents, do not remain on the stairs.
- Avoid staying under eaves, canopies, or trees due to safety risks.
- After tornadoes or thunderstorms have passed, be cautious of objects overhead. If you see anything that seems unstable due to strong winds, please notify nearby staff.
- In case of severe weather, the day's event may be canceled. Please check the official website or official X (formerly Twitter) for updates.
